The Stimulus of Pure Blood

That is what is required by every organ of the body, for the proper performance of its functions.

It prevents biliousness, dyspepsia, constipation, kidney complaint, rheumatism, catarrh, nervousness, weakness, faintness, pimples, blotches, and all cutaneous eruptions.

It perfects all the vital processes.

W. P. Keeton, Woodstock, Ala., took Hood's Sarsaparilla to make his blood pure. He writes that he had not felt well but lived for some time. Before he had finished the first bottle of this medicine he felt better and when he had taken the second was like another man—free from that tired feeling and able to do his work.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Promises to cure and keeps the promise. Accept no substitute, but get Hood's today.

Mr. Hosea Shown, of the Bartlett precinct, announces as a candidate for the office of Jailor subject to the will of the Republican party. Mr. Shown was raised near Beda, where he has done some active work for the party. He has been conspicuous in local politics for quite a while and has rendered some valuable service. He is thoroughly imbued with Republicanism and if nominated would make a strong candidate, and would certainly have charge of the evil doers during the next four years.

Mr. H. Clay York, of the East Hartford precinct, submits his name to the Republican voters of Ohio county, before the primary, for the office of Assessor, and earnestly insists that his friends and fellow Republicans give him an earnest consideration. Mr. York is a good man, well qualified to discharge the duties of Assessor and should be the will of the party that he be the nominee to be voted for at the November election of 1901 he will prove a successful candidate.

No one can reasonably hope for good health unless his bowels move once each day. When this is not attended to, disorders of the stomach arise, biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, piles, etc. If you wish to avoid these ailments keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when required. They are so easy to take and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

Rheumatism.

Nobody knows all about it; and nothing, now known, will always cure it.

Doctors try Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, when they think it is caused by imperfect digestion of food. You can do the same.

It may or may not be caused by the failure of stomach and bowels to do their work. If it is, you will cure it; if not, you will do no harm.

The way, to cure a disease is to stop its cause, and help the body get back to its habit of health.

When Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil does that, it cures; when it don't, it don't cure. It never does harm.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other.
If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. AN OLD FARMER

Gives the Herald a Turn for Slandering Supt. Rogers.

Beda, Ky. Dec. 6, 1901.
EDITORS REPUBLICAN.—Since the charges which the "Herald" made against Superintendent, Fon Rogers, have aroused considerable comment, I wish to say that I do not consider these charges personal to Mr. Rogers. Further than the mentioning of his name in connection therewith.

The charge that Rogers "represents the worst element of Republicanism, which is not only odious, but dangerous," and that "he has no patience with any man who does not endorse Taylorism and all of its concomitant evils," is a thrust at a man who believes in a fair ballot and a fair count, who voted for Governor Taylor and endorsed his fight for the office to which he was fairly elected.

It appears of late that the Democrats slander and abuse every man who opposes Goebelism. Because Governor Bradley called the militia to the armory in Louisville to protect life and property on election day in '99 he was denounced and compared to Jesse James. For the reason that Rogers has defended the course of the Republican party and exposed the tricks of the Goebelites, he is now denounced by the character assassins of being blinded by partisanship, and a dangerous character. No better recommendation of his worth could be given to the people of the county than the opposition of the Goebelites.

I have known Mr. Rogers for several years and never knew him to be other than upright, honest and faithful to duty.

Very truly,
H. C. SHAYER.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenias, Duchesne county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be born in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

Republicans.

I am profoundly thankful for the honor you did me in 1894 by electing me to the office of Clerk of the Ohio County Court, which position I held for only a term of three years, and as an evidence of my high appreciation of the confidence thus reposed in me, did everything in my power to discharge the duties of said office as to reflect honor and credit upon the party and the people who had favored me with their suffrage, and as the Clerks who preceded me had been re-nominated, I came before you in 1897 asking an endorsement at your hands, but you gave the nomination to the present incumbent, whose term of office is four years. Now as I am loath to believe that you intend to make me an exception, I again come before you for an endorsement as an evidence of your appreciation and approval of the manner in which I, as your Clerk, discharged the duties of the office. If you believe that I am worthy of an endorsement—that I was a faithful, diligent and efficient Clerk, then I appeal to you to give me your support and influence in the coming primary election. Very Respectfully, Yours, DAVID McHENRY HOCKER.

REV. G. W. DRANE

Takes the Herald to Taw on Its Slandorous Attack.

Hartf. Ky., Dec. 5, 1900.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN.—Since November the 21st I have noticed letters from several gentlemen regarding the ungentlemanly and cowardly attack of the Herald made upon Superintendent Fon Rogers upon his announcement for the Republican nomination for County Judge, and I am sure that I grace the sentiment of the entire colored population of the county in concurring in what those gentlemen have said. It was a fore gone conclusion that the Herald and its editors would be opposed to Mr. Rogers' nomination or election, because of political opinion, but decency demands that this fight be made with its distinguishing features in the platform upon which each stands; but the editors of the Herald, like every one else in the county, will know that the life and character of Mr. Rogers is above reproach and no one doubts for a moment but what he would make a competent County Judge, and should such "loyal Democrats" as the editor of the Herald be ranged along side of the most offensive negro Republican in Judge Fon Rogers' court; just what showing he would have could be made with its distinguishing features in the platform upon which each stands; but the editors of the Herald, like every one else in the county, will know that the life and character of Mr. Rogers is above reproach and no one doubts for a moment but what he would make a competent County Judge, and should such "loyal Democrats" as the editor of the Herald be ranged along side of the most offensive negro Republican in Judge Fon Rogers' court;
